Welcome

We are delighted you have chosen to spend this day with us. The Streams of Light Education Rally showcases Adventist education's unique vision to equip our children for this world and eternity. We offer a glimpse into several excellent resources ready to partner with you in creating an atmosphere for your children to grow and learn.

Dedication

We dedicate this event to our family of supporters—parents, grandparents and friends, who willingly give their time, generously share their finances and faithfully support our schools in prayer.

Appreciation

Special thanks to the Rally Team: Len Atkins, Lisa Morton Gramyk, James Kack, Jay Lantry, Matt Lombard, Karen States, Shirley Stephenson, Sherri Wheeler, and especially Ginger Brockman, Charla Suppé and Dennis Shelton for making this project a pleasure. Finally, we salute each person involved in today's program. You are the best advertisement for Adventist education!

Special Guests

Mark Witas: For over a year now, Cascade Christian Academy has benefited from the well rounded experience of Principal Mark Witas. In his 19 year career, Witas has been a teacher, pastor and a boys dean. In these three fields he has developed a special talent for working with young people and developing a marketing strategy that works! In addition to his great personality, you will remember him for his preaching style that has taken him around the world. Witas graduated from Seattle Pacific University and earned his masters degree at Andrews University. As an avid golfer he spends his free time either golfing, or mowing his lawn to look like a golf course.

Doug Newton: Has evolution taken over the medical world? Not in the mind of Douglas Newton, MD. As medical director of emergency services and associate chief of staff at Walla Walla General Hospital, Newton is very involved in the medical community. Yet he is a strong proponent of creation and works to educate people in that field. "I was a biologist before a physician and have never deserted that discipline," he says. Newton has a BA in Biology graduating summa cum laude in his major field at Loma Linda University and continued on to graduate in the medical field. He spends much of his time lecturing and especially enjoys wilderness medicine, teaching ACLS and other topics. His personal interests include alpine climbing, aviation, Harley Davidson motorcycles, scuba diving and creation science research.

Ron Turner: As Director of Marketing and Recruitment, Ron Turner has been a tremendous asset to Upper Columbia Academy for the past nine years by getting students involved in Adventist Education. His life experiences have led him to be deeply committed to helping young people attend our schools. In his job, Turner travels throughout Alaska, Utah, Nevada, Eastern Oregon, Northern Idaho and Eastern Washington building friendships with prospective students for Upper Columbia Academy. Turner has a BA in Theology and History from Walla Walla College and an MA in Administration from Loma Linda University.
